- 1006 Presentation photo for Robins Bolitho Challenge Shield first awarded 1921. People need to be named. 'At the Home Arts and industries exhibition at the Albert Hall this week there is a stall supplied from Newlyn consisting of work of the Newlyn men under the skilful instruction of Mr R T Dick of Tolcarne. The exhibits comprise clever work in copper, jewellery and enamels. The Robins Bolitho Challenge Shield presented by Mr Bolitho of Trengwainton, to the St John Ambulance Railway Corps, West Cornwall District for annual competition is much admired. It is one of the finest pieces of metal work in the exhibition. The Newlyn art industry is one of the oldest and most successful branches of the association, and there is a feeling that home craftsmanship might with advantage be developed in many more districts of Cornwall, particularly among disabled soldiers'. St Ives Times, 1921. Also in General Archive.
